West Windsor, NJ -- The West Windsor Arts Council announces an exciting array of workshops for youth, teens and adults. Spark your creativity! Create a one-of-a-kind gift for someone special, keep relaxed and fit, explore = favorite holiday story through drama, or be inspired by the convergence =f art and science. Every workshop is designed for you to explore something new. Registration is now open at www.westwindsorarts.org. Call 609.716.1931 for information or questions, Wed-Fri, 12-6pm and Sat, 10 am-4 pm. The West Windsor Arts Center is open to all. Free on site parking.

Our workshops are geared towards artists and scientists of all abilities! Adults and teens can explore jewelry-making, make greeting cards, relax with meditation or burn off some of those holiday calories with Bolly-fit, a Bollywood-inspired aerobics class. Parents and children can work together on creating white on white collages. Be amazed by =he variations you can achieve using just one color! Teens can also get the full GLEE experience by creating a performance of "Born this Way" in song and dance.

Children can also engage in a variety of activities including making paper mache sculptures, ornaments, painting with watercolors and even how to make puppets. New this month, Science Seeds and the West Windsor Arts Council are collaborating on workshops that will engage both the young artist and the young scientist in workshops like Fun with Electric Bugs, structures and Art Makes Music. All workshops are led by our master teaching artists. This is a great opportunity to see if you'd like to study further with one of our artists.

This year, the West Windsor Arts Council =as also kept the busy parent in mind, especially during the hectic holiday season. We have 7 exciting Holiday Reprieve Packages where parents can drop off their child(ren) for a few hours so that they can do their holiday shopping, wrap gifts or just take a nap in peace! Every Holiday Reprieve Package includes 2 workshops plus dinner. Details of the packages =re on www.westwindsorarts.org.
