West Windsor Senior Center Presents:

Dr. Arthur K.J. Park

Presents: Stories of Korean Clay

Friday, November 22  2PM

Dr. Park studied ceramics under the American master potter Kenneth Beittel and for a year worked in the studio of potter Lee Jun Hee in Icheon, Korea. He has studied under two Japanese Intangible Cultural Treasures Hamada Shoji from Mashiko and Inoue Manji from Artia. Dr. Park has done extensive research on Native American Potters, the potters of North Carolina and both historic and contemporary Korean ceramics and its influence on Japanese ceramics. He has presented lectures and workshops at many National and State conferences, Museums, Art Galleries, local art centers, schools, universities, etc. Call to register, 799-9068.